The rapidly growing City of Georgetown, Texas hired ECM International as Project Manager for their new Public Safety Operations & Training Facility.

This administrative facility houses the Fire and Police Departments and contains a vast array of technology enhancements including a tactical training facility and slow speed driving track with an expansion area for a future shooting range. Within the main building are an emergency operations center, a 9-1-1 dispatch center, locker rooms and physical/defensive tactics training area, criminal investigation lab and administrative and operational spaces.

As Project Manager, ECM handled numerous critical services for the City including plan and contract compliance, schedule and budget oversight, change order monitoring and development and coordination of overall team communication.
